Business Voice Makes Endorsements in Key Races for the 2020 Election

BREVARD, FL (September 15, 2020) – Business Voice Political Committee of Florida’s Space Coast announces several endorsements for critical races in Brevard County following interviews, extensive analysis, and a deliberative review process.

“These candidates have demonstrated a firm grasp of the issues affecting the Space Coast business community,” said Larry McIntyre, Chairman of the Board. “At a time when there are numerous challenges facing companies of all sizes, it is important candidates know how they can help maintain an economic climate favorable for growth,” noted McIntyre.

District 1: Rita Pritchett

District 5: Kristine Isnardi

Port Authority

District 4: Kevin Markey

“Whether it’s protecting our community from crime, distributing CARES Act funding to struggling small businesses, or keeping Port Canaveral one of the busiest port’s in the world, each of our endorsed candidates is ready to get the Space Coast back on its feet,” stated Eric Hoppenbrouwer, Executive Director.

These excellent candidates join State House representatives Rene “Coach P” Plasencia (R-50), Tyler Sirois (R-51), Thad Altman (R-52), Randy Fine (R-53), and State Senator Debbie Mayfield (R-17) as the full-slate of endorsements by the organization for the 2020 election. Altman and Fine moved onto the general election after winning their primary elections back on August 18. Business Voice is committed to supporting the most qualified candidates who will best serve the interests of the Space Coast region and local job creators.
